

Project Information

Corporate Thematic Area:	Democratic Governance and Gender Mainstreaming
Project Officer:	Ms. Sakinah Lukhele
Project Location:	Swaziland
Partner Names:	Deputy Prime Minister's office, Ministries of Economic Planning and Development, Housing and Urban Development, Justice and Constitutional Affairs, Attorney Generals Chambers, Public Service and Information, Home Affairs; SIMPA, UNISWA, CANGO, Lutsango LwakaNgwane and the Swaziland Human Development Forum, Parliament of Swaziland, Civil Society Organization
Major Sources of Financing:	TRAC 1.1.1
Start Date:	2007
End Date:	2010

Project Name	Project Status	Description	Development Objectives	Activities	Intended Results	Budget
Good Governance and Gender Mainstreaming	On-going	This programme is aimed at supporting the Government of Swaziland in strengthening capacities and providing institutional support for constitutional and legal reforms, decentralized government, administration of justice, management of development as well as support national dialogue to raise public awareness and popular participation in national human development, governance and gender issues.	Forster Democratic Governance and the promotion of Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women.	1.Parliament oversight responsibilities enhanced for both revenue allocation and fiscal discipline. 2.Laws enacted to ensure accountable, transparent and participative governance 3. Civic education and national dialogues enhanced for the promotion of human rights. 4.Swazi Law and Customs codified for harmonization of Governance Structures. 5 Civic educations supported for improved rights and capacity to meet states party reporting on International Conventions enhanced. 6.Law Reform and Human Rights Commission established to ensure relevant laws and policies revised by 2010. 7. Local Government and Planning and Budgeting Act enacted for optimal usage of	1. Civic education on the constitution conducted and people well informed about the constitution ,2. Capacity of the judicial system to administer justice strengthened on court administration, practices and procedures, 3.Capacity building and strengthening for Anti-Corruption Commission (ACC), 4. Decentralization for improved service delivery, 5.Capacity of Parliamentarians enhanced to effectively perform their oversight and legislative roles, 6. Capacity strengthened to promote gender equality and empowerment of women.	2007 - USS 373,000.00

Other Project Information

List of Project Press Releases:	1. Launch of The EU/UNDP Gender Programme; 2. Launch of the Gender Based Violence Campaign
Related Publications:	Brochure on the EU/UNDP Gender Programme
Project Document:	CPAP and Annual Workplan
Project Blurb:

